

Sodra Mezs SIA, the international subsidiary of the Swedish Sodra Group in Vaxjo, Sweden, operates in the forestry sector focused on forest management and timber purchases and sales. Globally, Sodra is one of the market leaders of pulp and lumber production. With a current 13,500 hectares and presence in Latvia since 2000, we see a steady growth year-upon-year amidst growing internationalization. The company is now consolidating its Latvian headquarters to Riga and in the process taking on a Chief Accountant to streamline its reporting and build up the functions to meet international requirements. The company currently employs five staff at its offices.

SCOPE: The person we see for the role ideally has worked in a larger setting with international ties enabling her/him to look ahead, anticipate, take initiatives, and liaise with both colleagues within, and experts externally, in Finance and other. You may be a chief accountant already or you are set on professional development, in which we are more than pleased to assist you! To manage to this end you will receive training in Sweden, and locally be managed and supported by the acting purchasing-and sales manager. The software system Agresso, albeit new to Latvia, is one of your positive challenges where your previous experience will be very welcome and where we await your input.
